Custom Portrait Commissions By Manuel G. Avendaño

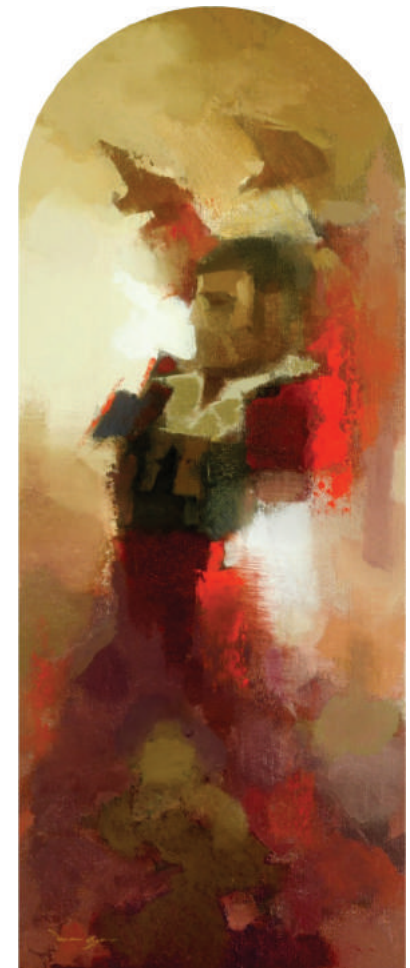

Avendano's ability to paint the human figure has grown and developed, eventually earning the honor of being hired to paint the portraits of the last two presidents of Mexico, President Vicente Fox and President Felipe Calderon.

"I have always expressed myself through art. In my early years, drawing and painting took me into a world of my own, and I always knew this would lead me to a career as an artist." Generally using his wife as his model, Avendano enjoys portraying the female figure to give the delicate beauty factor to his work.

TO KNOW JOY

IN YOUTH, THE ESSENCE OF JOY IS NOT ALWAYS FULLY GRASPED,
 WE LIVE THROUGH YEARS JUST EXISTING BEFORE WE FINALLY ASK,
 "WHAT AM I MISSING?"
 GOD'S HAND IS OFFERING THE GIFT,
 I HAVE SPENT MONEY ON CLOTHING AND JEWELS,
 FOREVER SEEKING THAT "QUICK-FIX" LIFT.
 FINALLY, IT SEEMS, WE AWAKEN TO LIFE,
 MATERIAL STUFF IS NO LONGER OUR PLOY,
 NOW, IN PEACE, I KNOW IF I HAD TO CHOOSE,
 I WOULD SHED MY FINE GARMENTS
 TO BE CLOAKED IN JOY!

OUR STORY

HOW CHARLES PABST AND FAMILY
BROUGHT YOU THE SIGNATURE
GALLERY

IN 1973, Charles Pabst was preparing to marry Christine, the love of his life. He had graduated from university in fine art, fulfilled his obligation to Uncle Sam, and now had to figure out how to make a living. He thought about working for someone else – he liked business. But he had been selling his paintings since he was 14 and wanted more than anything to paint pictures and create his own business in the field of fine art. So in the beginning, he opened up a frame shop with a studio in the back where he could paint. He found that he mostly loved the painting part, so he quit the frame shop and just painted. And as his fame and success in painting grew, so did his family. And he felt blessed.

So for 20 years he painted beautiful paintings and loved it, showing in fine galleries through the US. But he still had a desire to have a business. So with the support of Christine, he opened his first gallery in Scottsdale, Arizona, in 1997, showcasing mostly his own work. Pretty soon he outgrew the space and opened a larger space. He continued to expand and began featuring additional artwork from other great artists. His children had grown up in the art world, so some began to take a serious part in the operations, Mark in running the business end, and Cara and Michael painting beautiful paintings. And he felt blessed.

With the success of the Scottsdale gallery, he wanted to branch out to other locations that he loved. What better than California where he grew up and New Mexico where Christine grew up. So in 2008 he opened The Signature Gallery in Laguna Beach and opened The Signature Gallery in Santa Fe in 2009, showing outstanding artwork from all over the world, as well as featuring regional artists from those areas. And he felt blessed.
